

FIFTY YEARS OF FUNDING FUTURES.

In Celebration of its 50th Anniversary, Greater Toledo Community Foundation to Host Full STEAM Ahead, A FREE Admission Day for Everyone to Enjoy Imagination Station and National Museum of the Great Lakes

WHAT:

A day of FREE admission to Imagination Station and the National Museum of the Great Lakes for water-based, green learning activities at Toledo's two premiere museums on the Maumee River.

Activities include:

- National Museum of the Great Lakes activities include a STEAM-based Scavenger Hunt and Recycled Regatta.
- Imagination Station activities include opportunities to create from re-purposed materials and glass crusher demonstrations.
- PLUS, members of both institutions can use their membership card to get into both museums free anytime between September 1-10.

This event is made possible through the generosity of Greater Toledo Community Foundation—celebrating 50 years of funding futures. Be sure to see the historic timeline of GTCF's impact at Imagination Station.
